

Master's degree in International Public Health

KIT & VU University Amsterdam

	Public Health	International Health	International Public Health
OBJECTIVE	To develop the capacity of senior health managers to use an integrated, multi-disciplinary approach to address health problems in their country.	To develop the capacity of professionals to understand and analyse international health issues, conduct applied research, and develop adequate and appropriate responses in global context.	To train bachelor students to cooperate and communicate with professionals from various scientific and medical disciplines, as well as representatives of public health and related organizations, focusing on health problems in a global context.
LEVEL	Master, postgraduate	Master, postgraduate	Initial Master
ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Bachelor's degree in medicine or in another field related to health care</li><li>• A minimum of three years of work experience, including managerial responsibilities in health services in a low resource country</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Bachelor's degree in medicine or a paramedical science</li><li>• Two years of relevant work experience</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Academic bachelor degree in Biomedical Sciences, Health Sciences or in another related field</li><li>• Demonstrable knowledge of epidemiology</li><li>• Work experience not required</li></ul>
DURATION	1 year Full-time	1 to 5 years Full-time or part-time	1 or 2 years Full-time
ORGANISATION	KIT/VU University Amsterdam	KIT/VU University Amsterdam	VU University Amsterdam
MORE INFORMATION	Download the brochure of Public Health	Download the brochure of International Health	See website International Public Health

Royal Tropical Institute

UNIVERSITY
AMSTERDAM